

Hubert H. Fernandez, MD

James and Constance Brown Endowed Chair in Movement Disorders
Professor of Medicine (Neurology)
Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine and
Chair/Director, Center for Neurological Restoration
Cleveland Clinic
Cleveland, Ohio, USA

Hubert H. Fernandez, MD, is Professor of Medicine (Neurology) at the Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine, Case Western Reserve University; Chair/Director of the Center for Neurological Restoration at Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the holder of the James and Constance Brown Family Endowed Chair in Movement Disorders.

Dr Fernandez received both his BS in Biology and MD degree from the Philippines. He completed his internship in Internal Medicine at University of Pennsylvania/Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; his residency in Neurology at Boston University Medical Center in Massachusetts; and his fellowship in Movement Disorders at Brown University in Rhode Island.

Dr Fernandez is an internationally recognized expert in movement disorders who has been voted one of the Best Doctors in America by his peers. After completing his medical training, he joined the faculty of Brown University School of Medicine as Assistant Professor in the Department of Clinical Neurosciences. In 2003, Dr Fernandez relocated to the University of Florida, where he eventually became Director of the Clinical Research Unit for Neurological and Psychiatric Disorders, Vice Chair of Academic Affairs, and Professor of Neurology prior to joining Cleveland Clinic. An active and productive researcher, he has initiated or participated in over 75 clinical trials and has published his findings in well over 300 articles and abstracts on Parkinson's disease, cervical dystonia, blepharospasm, and other movement disorders. He has written a dozen books and has published 50 book chapters, and has served on the editorial board of Movement Disorders and is currently an editorial board member of the American Journal of Clinical Neurology, European Neurological Journal, and Clinical Neuropharmacology.

Dr Fernandez is a fellow of the American Academy of Neurology and the American Neurological Association. He is currently elected as the Co-Chair of the Parkinson Study Group. He is serving his third term as Co-Medical Editor of the Movement Disorders Society Website, which awarded by the Standard of Excellence Award by the WMA in 2015. He has been a Councilor for the AAN Movement Disorders Section, Executive Committee Member of the Parkinson Study Group and Dystonia Study Group and served as the President of the Florida Society of Neurology and World Neurology Foundation. He was awarded the Presidential Distinguished Service Award by the Movement Disorders Society at the 16th International Congress for Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorders in Dublin, Ireland in 2012.