

Sue Calne RN SRN CM

Nightingale School of Nursing 1961-1965

Clinical Coordinator Pacific Parkinson's Research Centre UBC Vancouver BC 1982-2000

UBC NPF Center of Excellence Nurse educator and counselor 2000-2007 Provided regional workshops for staff in Long Term Care Facilities caring for patients no longer able to attend a clinic..

Member of the board The Parkinson Foundation 1987-1996 Developed the Canadian Parkinson's nurse program, which saw partial Foundation funding for 10 nurses in the major Canadian Movement Disorders clinics

Vice President The Parkinson Foundation of Canada 1996-1998 Responsible for education and technology. Upgraded and produced educational material and with the nurses, developed and published the Parkinson's Impact Scale (PIMS) measuring quality of life.

Research interest Quality of Life ,Caregivers, Psychosocial aspects of young onset and late stage patients with Parkinson's disease.

In 1996 provided informal assistance to the editor of Parkinsonism and Related Disorder.

1997-1999 Speaker Coordinator International Congress on Parkinsonism and Related Disorders Vancouver BC.

2001 Appointed a Member of the Order of Canada for services to patients with Parkinson's disease and their caregivers.

2007 –and Appointed managing editor of Parkinsonism and Related disorders when journal proceeded on line. Primary goal is to make sure that every submission is submitted having followed the guide for authors to insure that it meets the requirements for submission before it is transferred to an Editor.