

DEVIN BINDER BRIEF BIO FOR IAPRD

Devin K. Binder, M.D., Ph.D. is a board-certified and fellowship-trained neurosurgeon. He received his undergraduate education at Harvard University (graduating in 1991), and then joined the M.D./Ph.D. program at Duke University (graduating with M.D. and Ph.D. in 1999). He did surgical internship then neurosurgery residency training at UCSF from 1999 to 2005, then did an international neurosurgery fellowship (William P. Van Wagenen fellowship) at the University of Bonn from 2005-2006. He has been in practice in Orange County since 2006. His expertise is in deep brain stimulation (DBS) surgery, epilepsy surgery, and general neurosurgery. He has a faculty appointment as Professor in the UC Riverside School of Medicine, where he teaches neuroanatomy and neuroscience and runs a neuroscience laboratory.